12 Under the old rules, there used to be often differences and misunderstandings between the Committees and the departmental officers But after the new rules took away from these local Committees all powers but those of inspection and recording of opinions, the Committees have ceased to take an interest in the work and have almost ceased to hold meetings But if the object of Government is to secure the sympathy, confidence and support of the people for the advancement of Education, especially of Education of girls, it seems the best course to revert to the former system and to appoint Committees to whom some function more substantial, is delegated than power to inspect and make remarks, in visitors' books The visitors have practically no more important function at present than what any casual visitor may exercise

13 The constitution of Committees may no doubt give room to some friction between the Committees and the Education department, but this can be minimised by proper safeguards

16 The system of Board of Visitors has been in existence past for ~~ab~~ three years The Complaint is that these visitors take no interest in the schools, hold no meetings and are generally apathetic If it is ~~considered thought~~ undesirable to alter the system so soon after its coming into existence, the question of defining these duties of the Board ~~as~~ to may be considered The Dy Comr of Shimoga suggests that the holding of monthly meetings by the Bd may be made obligatory, and that the collective opinion of the members on all matters connected with the welfare of the school may be

17 There is nothing very new to be said on this much debated question & probably the most easily workable course lies between the two schemes that have been tried

18 The old rules re the committee seem to have placed too much power in the hands of the committee especially in the matter of appointments &c & the new scheme ~~of visitors~~ has taken away all power from the body of visitors

19 In the new scheme the Dy Insp^r or the Asstt Dy Insp^r who is the local departmental officer has so many schools to look after that he cannot possibly pay adequate attention to the Girls' Schools, & much must therefore be left to the headmaster of the School, who is in most cases a man on a small pay He cannot ordinarily command sufficient influence in the locality to attract pupils to the School &c

20 If the existing scheme is to be revised & committees revised, then powers should be clearly defined so as to avoid the chance

21 In regard to the menial staff, peons &c, the Committee may be given the power to appoint. The menial staff is likely to be drawn from the local people & there would ordinarily be no need ~~for~~ to transfers If the Dy Insp considers that a peon or other person appointed by the Committee is undesirable in the interests of the School, he may make a suitable recommendation before the Committee & if it is not accepted the matter may go up to the Dy Edn

22 Perhaps powers of this restricted nature may be given to the Boards of Visitors without changing the name

Sir

With reference to your docket No 9201-8 —Eds 376—09 dated 11th April 1910 calling for my opinion on Davana Representative Assembly Subject No 210 of 1909 regarding the Re-establishment of Girls' School Committees in place of the present Boards of Visitors, I have the honor to state that from perusal of the functions of these bodies as laid down in Notification No 13156 — Ed 266 dated 10th February 1902 and Government Order No 10357 — Edn 229—07—2 dated 16th April 1908, the original Girls' School Committees as well as the present Boards of Visitors are only advisory bodies, the only points of difference between them being

(1) that the original Committees had the power either to admit pupils or to discharge those those already admitted, in the interests of the Schools

(2) that the Honorary Secretaries of Girls' School Committees used to carry on correspondence with the Deputy Inspectors of Schools and the Inspector-General of Education on matters of importance concerning the schools, and

(3) that the powers of Deputy Inspectors might in certain cases be delegated to the Presidents of Girls' School Committees at Distant Headquarters

It does not appear to be necessary to reserve the powers which the old Committees exercised regarding the admission of pupils, as the occasions on which these Supervising bodies have to interfere with the acts of the Headmasters of Schools are very few, and it is enough if due attention is paid by them as well as the Inspecting Officers to the opinions of the Visitors, whenever offered in the interests of the Schools

As matters stand at present, the opinions and recommendations of the Visitors on all matters concerning the Girls' Schools are duly recorded in the Visitors' Book, and regularly communicated to the Inspecting Officers, and taken notice of by them It is not necessary therefore to require correspondence on important matters concerning the Girls' Schools to pass through the medium of the supervising bodies. The delegation of the powers of the Deputy Inspectors to the Boards at District Headquarters is a superfluity, as the Deputy Inspectors have their headquarters in the very places in which the Schools are situated.

To ensure however, that some supervision is actually exercised by the Boards of Visitors, it will suffice if regular monthly meetings of these bodies are made obligatory and the collective opinion of the members thereof on all matters connected with the well-being of the School is sent for the information of the Inspecting Officers.

Sir

With reference to your no 9201-8/Edn 376-09 dated the 14th April 1910 calling for an expression of my opinion on the re-establishment of Girls School Committees, (Dasara Representative Assembly Subject no 201 of 1909) I have the honour to State that when the Committees were first organized, the members thereof, used to take lively interest in the affairs of the Schools which tended to increase their efficiency and whatever proposals were made by them for the better management of the Schools under their charge, due consideration was being bestowed by the Inspector General of Education But now, every visitor has to record his opinion in the Visitors' Book, copy of which is being sent to the Deputy Inspector of Schools for such action as he deems fit to take in the matter In fact the opinions of the Visitors will simply be a routine matter

2 For the foregoing reasons, I strongly urge the necessity of re establishing Girls' School Committees, as was the case formerly of the old System of management of these schools by Committees

2 When in 1908, the then Inspector General of Education (Mr Bhabha) introduced the Board of Visitors in place of the Committee of management for the Girl School at Chittagalur, I gave it as my opinion that the changed body would serve no useful purpose in the furtherance of the progress of these most useful institutions The old Committees had certain duties to perform and powers to exercise and they necessarily felt a sense of responsibility for the management of the institutions under their charge. But in the new arrangement the Board of Visitors is not guided by any particular rules of business and does not, as a body exercise any control over or has any effective responsibility for the institution Each visitor is expected to record his individual remarks of the working of the Institution leaving it to the authorities to pay what attention they like to the remarks It is in the ordinary course of human nature that in these circumstances, the visitors do not take any interest in the affairs of the institution Speaking from my experience of Chikmagalur, I may say that as long as the old Committee continued it held occasional meetings and exercised a certain amount of healthy control and supervision over the management of the Girls school, but since the Committee was abolished and replaced by the Board of Visitors, I very much doubt if any visitor has visited the school and left a record of his inspection as intended by Government

Sir,

With reference to your docket No 9201-8/Ed 376-09, dated 14th April 1910 calling for my opinion about the revival of Girls' School Committees as suggested by the Dasara Representative Assembly last year, I have the honour to state that the System of management by a Board of visitors now in force is preferable to that which it has superceded The former Committees had power to make recommendations to the Inspector General regarding the appointments, promotions and punishments of School masters as well as the grant of leave to them in addition to the exercise of their discretion as regards the admission or dismissal of girls such an exercise of powers which are of an administrative character and appropriately to be dealt with by the head of the Educational department was carefully eschewed by Government in defining the duties of the present Board of visitors, whose functions are purely advisory, in no way interfering with the administrative discipline of the Educational service As the present System successfully overcomes the difficulty of dual control of the old system, I am not in favour of recommending the re establishment of the committees

Sir,

Adverting to your docket No 9201-8 dated the 14th April 1910 inviting reference to subject No 210 of the Dasara Edn 376-09 Representative Assembly Proceedings of 1909 regarding the re-establishment of Girls' School Committees and requesting an expression of my opinion in the matter, I have the honor to state that after Consulting the Assistant Commissioners and the Amildars, as also some of the leading non-Official Gentlemen of this District, it is considered desirable to re-establish the Committees in place of the Boards of of Visitors, inasmuch as the powers that may be vested in the Committees for the proper management of the institutions are generally more than those vested in the Boards of Visitors, as the two terms themselves signify

2- In order to have an efficient working Committee it seems necessary that it should consist of both Official and non-Official members and the latter ought to be as representative as possible With this object in view the Strength of the Committee may vary with the locality in which the Girls School is established The non-Official gentlemen selected may be those who would take a lively interest in female education and being also influential The maximum Strength of the Committee may be fixed at 12 and the minimum at 6, having a President duly elected among themselves.

3 The above Suggestions are of course intended for all Girls' Schools maintained by the Government or by a Municipality, and if need be it may be extended to Such Girls Schools as are

2i
Are Supported by Grants-in-aid from Government

4. The Chief function of a Girls School Committee is to look after the proper management of the institution, Subject to such Suggestions as may be given by Officers of the Education Department, from time to time
